

Code of Ethical Conduct

Federation of State Physician Health Programs, Inc.

As a member of the Federation of State Physician Health Programs, I will:

Adopt the highest standards of professional and personal conduct in fulfilling my responsibilities on behalf of the Federation and uphold all laws and regulations related to its activities.

Exercise and insist on honesty and integrity in the conduct of the Federation's affairs,

Maintain fidelity to the core values of the Federation and of the medical profession and effectively communicate and support those values in my work relationships and daily activities, both internal and external to the Federation.

Use only legal and ethical means in striving to influence policies, legislation, or regulations affecting the medical society.

Serve all members of the Federation with loyalty and fairness, granting no special privileges to any individual member.

Refuse to engage in, or condone, discrimination on the basis of race, sex, age, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, or disability.

Respect the confidential relationships with individual members of the Federation and the information entrusted to me in the conduct of the Federation's affairs.

Refuse to engage in, or condone, activities for personal gain at the expense of the Federation or its industry or profession.

Accept responsibility to further enhance and share my proficiency and knowledge through participation in continuing education, and through my interaction with others.

Strive for a healthy work environment in which integrity of personal conduct is maintained, and misuse of personal power, including sexual harassment, is not tolerated.

These Principles have been developed by members of the Federation of State Physician Health Programs and are offered to promote and maintain high standards of service and personal conduct in all members of the Federation.

(Adopted from AAMSE)

Date of Adoption: 3/28/00