FSPHP Leaders Participate in Lorna Breen Heroes' Foundation Leadership Conference and ALL IN Coalition Strategic Retreat

Dr. Edwin Kim, Dr. Art Hengerer, Linda Bresnahan, Robin McCown, & Corey Feist

FSPHP President-Elect Dr. Edwin Kim, Executive Director and CEO Linda Bresnahan, Board Member Dr. Art Hengerer, and Georgia Professional Health Program representative Robin McCown attended the Lorna Breen Heroes' Foundation Leadership Conference and the ALL IN: Recovery and Well-Being Coalition Strategic Retreat. As proud members of the ALL IN Coalition, FSPHP joined peers in celebrating five years of collective impact and collaborating on shared goals to advance workforce mental health and well-being.

Dr. Edwin Kim & Dr. Michael Stadler

The conference and retreat showcased the incredible strength of collaboration among more than 37 organizations that make up the ALL IN Coalition, fostering shared strategies and coordinated action across the healthcare community. FSPHP leaders complemented this unified effort by sharing the Federation's goals focused on expanding access to Physician Health Program (PHP) services, advocating for safe haven legislation that protects clinicians seeking help with PHPs, and promoting health system policies that ensure clear, supported pathways to PHP care.

Together, these efforts reflect a collective commitment—demonstrated by the Lorna Breen Heroes' Foundation, the ALL IN Coalition, and FSPHP—to create lasting, systemic change and promote a culture of health and well-being for all healthcare professionals.
