Call for Panelists: Central Region Member Meeting

FSPHP is looking for member panelists for an interactive session at the virtual FSPHP Central Region Member Meeting on Monday, November 30, from 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. Central Time.

Managing Complex Mental Health Cases in PHPs: Interactive Case Discussion

This interactive session will begin with a brief expert overview of best practices for Health Professional Programs managing complex mental health cases, followed by two case presentations. Participants will then move into breakout groups to brainstorm their approach to each case, identify appropriate referral options and resources, and outline strategies for ongoing PHP case management. Each breakout will assign a reporter to present the group's recommendations back to the full audience, creating an opportunity to compare approaches, surface practical resources, and define what a successful PHP experience looks like in these complex situations.

Interested in serving as a panelist?

✉ Contact Sandra Savage at ssavage@fsphp.org by October 16 with a brief description of your proposed case.

*All FSPHP members are eligible to participate regardless of region.

Find Administrative Policies in the FSPHP PHP Policy Library

The FSPHP PHP Policy Library is a valuable resource created by and for FSPHP members. It features a growing collection of policies voluntarily submitted by member organizations to support knowledge sharing and best practices across the field.

Explore administrative policies on:

- Maintenance of Records
- Confidentiality and Safe Harbor
- Conflict of Interest
- Education and Outreach
- Finance

Use these policies to strengthen your program's own policies and practices, and to support FSPHP's mission of promoting physician health and patient safety.
